SET THE HEATHER BLAZING

The Graphic Novel of Wexford's 1996 Hurling All-Ireland

by Tom Doyle (yellowbelly.ie)

Foreword by Liam Griffin

Relive the glory days for Wexford hurling in 1996 as this 68 page graphic novel takes you on the journey of a team that nobody, including the players themselves, believed could ever reach the Promised Land and bring back the Liam MacCarthy Cup to Slaneyside. That is, until a hotelier from Rosslare, Liam Griffin, took charge of the men in purple and gold. He surrounded himself and the players with the right people to make them the fittest team in Ireland, both mentally and physically.

Enjoy the highs and the lows of that glorious summer when everybody was 'Dancing at the Crossroads'.

A year when a group of special players and management 'Set The Heather Blazing'.
